

2025 Beijing-Tianjin-Hebei Fund & Enterprise Financing Matchmaking Conference Invitation

Xiaomi Funds

Date: Tuesday, November 18, 2025

Location: Beijing Economic-Technological Development Area

Scale: 500+ Participants

Event Overview

This high-level conference is a pivotal official initiative to accelerate the integrated economic development of the Beijing-Tianjin-Hebei (Jing-Jin-Ji) region. The event is strategically designed to be more than just a forum—it is an active driver for building the region's "Six Chains and Five Clusters" by directly connecting the most promising enterprises with top-tier capital.

The conference is convened to implement the decisions of the 2025 Beijing-Tianjin-Hebei Party and Government Leadership Symposium, as well as the "Key Tasks for Deepening Coordinated Development in 2025."

Despite immense potential, a gap often exists between the region's strategic industrial projects and the sophisticated capital required to scale them. This event is engineered to bridge that gap.

It aims to create a precise and efficient matchmaking ecosystem that Channels Financial Resources, Fosters Synergy, and Leverages Technological Frontiers

The event will feature interactive roundtables and networking sessions with prominent local enterprises and government leaders. Participating companies are invited to showcase their innovations and share their expertise through dedicated presentations.

About Organizer

This is an official event convened by the Beijing Municipal Office for Beijing-Tianjin-Hebei Coordination (Municipal Development and Reform Commission), in partnership with its counterparts in Tianjin and Hebei. This high-level endorsement ensures the conference is directly aligned with the highest-priority policies and projects in the Jing-Jin-Ji region, offering attendees unmatched access to the decision-makers shaping North China's economic future.
